Michigan Broadband Services, Founded in 1908,
Plans Headquarters Move to Traverse City

Carney, Michigan, March 3, 2017– Michigan Broadband Services announced plans to expand to Traverse City and Alpena beyond its existing Lower Peninsula exchanges of Chester, Manistee, Grace Harbor and Amble. The company will offer high-speed broadband and other telecommunication services via extension of its existing fiber, wireline and wireless networks in Michigan. The Company plans to open its headquarters in Traverse City later this year.

“We feel privileged to be in position to serve Michigan with broadband in areas that are underserved or lack quality broadband services”, said Bruce Moore President and General Manager of Michigan Broadband Services. “We look forward to the opening of new offices in Traverse City and completion of the expansion process”.

Michigan Broadband Services, with offices in Carney, Escanaba and Marquette MI, is a full-service telecommunications company that offers business class telecommunications services throughout the Upper Peninsula including high capacity broadband connections.
